

1. Don't slack off, especially at the beginning of the year.
2. Don't wait until the last minute to study.
3. Really pay attention because you will use skills & knowledge for rest of career.
4. Take the labs seriously because everything learned is applied to hands-on skill development.