

Visualizer Rubric

Use this rubric to ensure your Discover IT Visualizer includes all required elements.

	3	2	1
Technology Border (Images)	The border visually and creatively represents 6 or more technologies that you use every day.	The border includes 3 – 5 technologies that are used every day.	The border includes technologies that are used every day.
IT Functional Area(s) & IT Job Role(s) That Interest You. (Text/Images)	Visually and creatively represents an IT Functional Area and/or IT Role of interest and has several images and or text representing you working in that area.	Lists an IT Functional Area and/or IT Role of interest and has an image or text representing you working in that area.	Lists an IT Functional Area and/or IT Role.
What I Like To Do (List)	Visually and creatively lists multiple items that describe what you like to do.	Lists three items that describe what you like to do.	Lists items that describe what you like to do.
Power Skills (Text/Images)	Visually and creatively represents your power skills and your goals for life-long learning.	Visually represents your power skills.	List your power skills.
Education Opportunities (Images/Text)	Visually and creatively represents your education path.	Has images that represent your education path.	Lists your education path.
Where Will You Work? (Images/Text)	Visually and creatively represents where you'd like to work.	Identifies where you'd like to work with images.	Lists where you'd like to work.
Questions About IT Careers. (Text)	Includes two thoughtful questions that are relevant to IT careers.	Includes two questions about IT careers.	Includes two questions.
Research IT Jobs (Text/Images)	Visually and creatively includes information about salaries, core skills, credentials, and qualifications for your IT career.	Includes information about salaries and other job requirements.	Lists salary and job requirements.
Totals			